Christmas

Are you making your plans for Christmas gifts? What would be more appropriate than one of CHARLES H. SAWYER'S Hand-Colored views of the White Mountains? Sawyer's love of nature, together with his great artistic skill, make these the most desired that can be obtained.

We also have a high-class assortment of landscapes by PLUMMER and BURROWES. Come in and look at them, or watch our show windows the coming week. These pictures, if seen, will speak for themselves.

We have these pictures in the following sizes, besides many odd sizes:

	inch
2x14	inch
4x17	inch
	THE REAL PROPERTY.

These are priced right, so do your shopping for these valuable gifts, before the very best ones

B.W. Hooker & Co.

Special for Saturday and Monday

We offer at prices below cost to close, the following broken lot of Skates. Some are shopworn, some are slightly damaged, all are serviceable. Mr. 10 Mente man main

The N. D. Phelps Co., Inc.

Steamship Bookings

Line. First sailing under the Cunard flag Dec. 10, 1919, New York to Plymouth-Cherbourg-Southampton. The Imperator is 919 feet long, has a beam of 90 feet, is of 50,000 tons register. Splendid accommodations

Gauld & Robertson, Agents Telephone 641-W Aldrich Block, Barre, Vermont

Thanksgiving Week Specials

Walnuts, per lb. 400 A nice line of Currants, Grapes, Cranberries, Oranges, Bananas, Grapefruit, Figs, and Dates.

Our car of Lenox Kerosene Oll arrived to-day. We would appreciate your order at once for barrel lots.

McALLISTER BROTHERS, East Barre, Tel. 691

Good Goods and Low Prices Keep Us Busy

"Green Mountain Brand" Sausage, lb. 33c Pure Kettle-Rendered Lard, lb. 34c Roast Pork, per fb.34c to 45c Juicy Pig Pork Chops, per lb. 35c to 45c Beef Steak, Round, per lb. 30c and 35c Frankforts, per lb. 30c

Five YOUNG TURKEYS left over from Thanksgiving at less than cost. A few Chickens and Fowls. Egg-Lass Powder, substitute for 31/2 doz. eggs, per package 35c Pie Apples, per peck 50c

Graves' Boiled Cider, large bottle 45c Rinso 3 packages for 25c DR. HESS' POULTRY PAN-A-CEA 95c a dozen.

Dr. Hess' Stock Tonic sale this week.

will make your hens lay eggs worth

Smith & Cumings Co. Inc.

TALK OF THE TOWN Select your grafonola for Christmas

See the bargains in millinery. Mrs. Birnie, 4 Laurel street .- adv. Baby carriages, sleighs, runners or Sadiler's. Keith avenue. Usual Saturday night dance, Howland hall; Gilbertson's orchestra,—adv. Benefit dance in Socialist hall Satur-5uc; ladies, free.—adv.

Mrs. W. S. Dunham of Bethlehem. N. H., is visiting for a few days at Hotel Barre with Mrs. E. J. Noyes. You will all want to hear about Johnny's new suit, so come to the Episcopal vestry Wednesday evening, Dec. 3.

Miss Josephine Fontana, a teacher in South Ryegate, is spending the Thanks-giving recess with her parents on Cen-

Individual chicken-pie and Italian spaghetti served for supper and during the evening to-night at Eureka Restau-

Richard Taylor, after spending a few days with friends and relatives in Barre, returned to-day to his home in Mrs. Atlo Mariani and Miss J. P. Nourse received the two diamonds at the grab sale held yesterday at Bell &

Edward Ward of Boston is in Barre for a few days looking after his interests at the Barre Candy Kitchen and visiting friends.

Mrs. A. Visconti of New York City arrived this afternoon and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. M. Rizzi of Miss Betty Macauly of Washington street returned to-day after visiting for a few days at the home of Miss Mary Darling of Chelsea.

H. A. Smith of the M. F. McDonald corporation at empany of South Ryegate motored back to his home yesterday after a few days' visit with friends in Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Tom W. Highland and Another town team, assuming the same of the "Jolly Five," motored this afternoon to North Montpelier to meet the team of the Little woolen mills of

Mrs. Alexander Gordon of Spaulding street, with her daughter, Edith M. Gordon, and John S. Stewart, left this morning for Berlin, N. H., where they will visit for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perley W. Churchill. Dave Divecchi, Louis Miro, Dolpho Calcagni and Paul Giacherio left yesterday for Pittsfield to prepare the

The first annual meeting of Barre post, No. 10, American Legion, will be ield Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 7:30 p. m. n the manufacturers' association hali over C. W. Averill's store). Report of lelegate to national conventioni Prosesed amendment to constitution to be considered. Election of officers for en-

The educational department of the of a series of classes on contemporary history in the Aldrich hall Monday evening at 7:30, the subject being "The Disfranchisement of the Negro and Ecoomic Evolution Since the Civil War." It will be conducted by Mrs. Ethel Wales. All club ladies are urged to be

A free public lecture on Christian Friday evening, Dec. 5, by Charles I. Ohrenstein of Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Ohrenstein is a member of the board of lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston. The lecture given under the auspices of the local bristian Science church and the pubic is cordially invited to hear it.

At a meeting held by the Italian Gaiety club committee, elaborate plans were made for a dance on Dec. 2. Many novelty dances were planned and all members are assured, an enjoyable evening. The committee in charge is anxious to welcome all former memjoin the cake walk. There will be an field. introduction committee on hand to help you get acquainted. "I'm 87 years young and as nimble as a kitten," John Lewis, a South Royalton man, informed two young men the other day after he had inquired for the residence of C. W. Averill. And his words were well chosen, for he was a keen, bright and sprightly man for S7 years. He had come from South Royalton to make a visit with some of his old-time friends, whom he hoped to locate after an absence of some 12 or 15 years. He saw the sign of C. W. Averill & Co. and endeavored to find the W, of the firm. When he accosted these two young men he was at the foot of Spaulding street. "Hey there, his rather light voice carried across the road to the two young men, and then he came nimbly across the highway, his little dark eyes sparkling and snapping under those heavy eye-brows, which were exactly the color of his bushy full beard. "I'm looking for He was informed as near as possible with her parents for a few days. its location on Tremont street, and soon after be was greeting Mr. Averill. Several years ago he was a resident of Barre and had previously been em-ployed by Mr. Averill and other people this city. He stopped over night at he Averill home, and then proceeded to Montpelier and Montpelier seminary. At Montpelier he was unsuccessful in locating the "old-time friends" connected with that institution and remained in that locality but a short

EAST BARRE

When going from Barre to Montpelier people traveling in the car in which he was, became acquainted with his situation and passed "the hat" that finally good spirits for his advanced years gained the admiration of many. has since returned to his home.

Resolutions. Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty God to remove from our midst our worthy brother, Herbert Southwick, in he power of his manhood, Resolved, that the members of Gill ge, No. 57, I. O. O. F., extend to his relatives our most heartfelt sympathy and commend them into the hands of dim who searcheth the hearts of the hildren of men, and be it further Resolved, that a copy of this resolu on be sent to his relatives, a copy sent to the Barre Daily Times and a copy spread upon the minutes of the lodge.

John Chase, M. J. Whiteomb, Paul Snow, Committee.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Select your grafonola for Christmas at Russell's. Arthur Spitzer, teacher of violin. Tel 680, 50 Wellington street, Barre.

Buy your Christmas gifts at Woman's Exchange, open Dec. 1, 24 Elm St. B. d. Cameron of Marshfield was among the business visitors in Barre day night; Landi's orchestra. Tickets, yesterday. Plan to do some of your Christmas shopping at the Episcopal sale Dec. 3

> John Wilson of Worcester is in Barre Saintsthe Miles block. Christmas sale, entertainment and chicken-pie supper Dec. 3 and 4, Pres-byterian church.—adv. Trucking Done - Anyone wanting light or heavy trucking done, call the Granite City Bottling Works.—adv.

Mrs. M. Solari of Framingham, Mass., s visiting for a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Vittori of Cot-The W. C. T. U. will hold a special evening at 7 o'clock. All members be 7 Summer street. Faust Bignami of Granite street, who since his return from France has been employed in the granite industry, left Wednesday night for Reno, Nev., hav-ng procured employment at his trade Woman's club will be held in Howland Everybody invited. hall Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 2:30 p. m. The program is in charge of Mrs. Fred Blanchard of Montpelier. Refreshments

John McPhee is visiting in the city. He has been employed during the past year by the Merchants' Shipbuilding corporation at Chester, Pa. Mr. Mc-Phee plans to remain in Barre until after New Year's.

Frank Lawliss of South Barre, who has been visiting for the past few days two sons have returned to Burlington after visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hughes of Hotel Barre for a few days. Sherburne Campbell, who has been visiting for the past few days at the home of his parents, returned to-day to the University of Vermont. to-day to the University of Vermont. Sherburne Campbell, who has been visiting with him, returned to Burlington to-day.

John Tomasi and Harley Kidder, stu-dents of the University of Vermont, returned to the college yesterday afternoon at the expiration of their Thanks giving holiday. Students to return to Burlington earlier in the day were Richard Cruickshank, Ralph Smith, Allan Johnston, Hildreth Martin and Miss camp there for a hunting party which er, Mrs. William Cole of Orange street, was completed to day when these men returned to his studies at the Univerjoined them at Pittsfield: Steve Mar-chesi, Charles Colombo, George Carle, Mario Bialli and Rinaldo Calcagni. sity of Vermont this morning. His same college, will remain at his home same college, will remain at his home over Sunday.

A large number of Barre hunters have already gone into the woods to take up their stations for the quest of deer next week, and many more will go to-night and to-morrow. The season opens Monday morning and will continue through Saturday, the hours of hunting being between 6 a. m. and p. m. Hunters should bear in mind Barre Woman's club will hold the third that they are required to make report of any deer they secure within 24 hours some game warden or other authorzed person. This year the shooting of both bucks and does, one animal to a hunter, is allowed.

Barre's victory arch for the Barre boys in the service is now nothing but a memory, the last trace of the once The work of dismantling the arch, which was started early in the week and carried on somewhat slowly, was i accelerated to-day when a large force of men pulled, ripped and tore the structure apart until it stood like a skeleton, after which they hauled down and severed the clinging joints The last trace of the arch was hauled off the street by early forenoon.

WILLIAMSTOWN

bers, especially those who think they are too old to dance. Come up and renew acquaintances. Keep up the Gaiety club spirit and be on time to for the Jones & Lamson Co. at Spring-

> Postmaster Burton E. Bailey and family of Montpelier were in town the 27th as the guests of his brother, Luther J. Bailey.

Erskine M. Jeffords, youngest son of Russell M. Jeffords, now of Kent, Conn. has been assigned to the pastorate of the M. E. church at Colfax, Ind., and has lately assumed the work of the parish. The young man is a graduate of the local high school and of Montpelier seminary. Later he went to the theological school of the denomination at Evanston, Ill., after a course at Sy racuse university. He was married in the summer of 1918 to Miss Margaret Shay of Chelsea, then a student at Middlebury college, from which institution she graduated this year. The best wishes of the many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Jeffords are extended to them in their chosen field of endeavor.

In correction of an item in yester day's Times, it should be stated that ome of my old-time friends, I ain't Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Buzzell and son of been here for some few years, and if Warren made the trip by team and ar-you'll direct me to Mr. C. W. Averill's rived at Jason E. Martin's late in the louse I'll be very much obliged to yer." afternoon. Mrs. Buzzell is to remain locality.

> George G. Lane and family, who live near Massena, N. Y., have already tak-en their vacation and spent a part of it with Mr. Lane's people on route No. 2

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Lane. Raymond Fogg was in town with his parents over Thanksgiving. He has e-enlisted in the army for a year and stationed at Northfield.

Methodist Episcopal | Centenary. Sunday services, 10:45 a. m.; "A Vital Question Confronting Every Human Life. Come and wor-ship with us. 12 m., Bible school. Classes for everybody., 7:30 p. m., unservice. Monday evening, 7:30, netted $7. His unusual keenness and third quarterly conference at the par-Let all officials attend. Tuesday evening, 7:30. Epworth league service: leader, Ila Seaver: topic, "Hints to Growing Christians." Thursday evening, 7:30, song and fellowship service the home of Mrs. Emma Warner; leader, Bert Martin. A special feature will be the singing of old-time hymns. May a large number gather at these

EAST ORANGE.

C. G. Simpson was in Bradford Monday on business.

Bert Taylor of Orford, N. H., visited at C. E. Hutchinson's Sunday. James Rouhan of South Barre was here on business Tuesday. Delbert Hutchinson and lady friend of Bradford were at his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hutchinson, for Thanks-

Miss Abbie Hutchinson of Bradford and times. I only asked you once. was at home for Thanksgiving.

SUNDAY SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES

Times and Places of Worship and Subjects of Sermons.

Salvation Army-Service at the Salvation Army hall to-night at 8 o'clock, also Sunday night at the same hour.

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day -Services are being held in the for a few days, staying at his home in Worthen block every Sunday. Sunday school at 2 p. m. and regular preaching service at 3 p. m. Everyone welcome.

Graniteville Presbyterian Church-Bible school on Sunday at 1:45. Preaching by Bert J. Lehigh of Barre at 3 o'clock; subject, "A Very, Testing Question." All are cordially invited to at-

Christian Science Church-Service at 10:45 a. m., Sunday. Sunday school at 12 m. Wednesday evening service at business meeting at the home of Mrs. 7:30. Reading-room open on Tuesday, Harry Bradley, 5 King street, Saturday Thursday and Saturday from 3 to 5.

East Barre Congregational Church-James Ramage, pastor. Morning service at 10:30; sermon topic, "Christian Stewardship." Sunday school at 11:45. Let everyone come. There were 78 present last Sunday. Christian En-The regular business meeting of the deavor service at 7 p. m.; topic, "Christianity and the Health of America."

> First Baptist Church-Bert J. Lehigh. pastor. The pastor will preach at 10:30 Very Testing Question." Evening subject, "Lamps and Bushels." Bible school at 13 o'clock. Young people's meeting at 6. Prayer service Thursday evening at 7:30. Everyone is cordially invited to worship with us.

> Italian Baptist Sunday School, Brook street—Mr. Lehigh, leader. Sunday school at 3 p. m. Lesson for to-morrow, freatness," taken from John 13:1-16. Everyone is cordially invited. Let us keep up the increase throughout the winter. Young people's Christian En-deavor service immediately follows

Hedding Methodist Episcopal Church -Bailey Gatzert Lipsky, paster. Morning service at 10:30; sermon topic, The Interchurch World Movement. Evening service at 7 o'clock; sermor Howard Cole, who had been spending the week end at the home of his moth-Epworth league at 6 p. m rayer service Thursday at 7:30 ; pic, "A Study in Personal Work."

> First Presbyterian Church, corner of Summer and Seminary streets—W. McN. Kittredge, paster. Morning worhip at 10:30 with sermon by the tor from the theme, "To Every Man His Work," Sunday school at noon, with classes for all. At 7 o'clock, evening worship, with sermon from the heme, "Christ on Life's Well Curb." Friday, at 7:30 p. m., the preparatory ecture and session meeting. The sac-

Anthony of Brighton, Mass., formerly of St. Albans; subject, "Justice to the Veterans of the Lord's Army." 12 m., A free public lecture on Christian splendid structure having been removed the Bible school meets. 3 p. m., the easter will speak to the juniors on "Hawaii." 7 p. m., worship and sermon by the pastor on "A World With-Thursday evening service devoted to preparation for every-member canvass on Dec. 7. Hearty welome to all our services.

CHILDREN SELL XMAS SEALS.

Vermont Tuberculosis Association Offers. a Reward.

through the mail.

The Vermont Tuberculosis association is offering as a reward to every of enlisting in the definite service of any purply that sails one hundred. upil that sells one hundred or more Christ as a life work. hristmas seals a set of five health | book marks. Each one of these book marks has a picture and motto that out by the interchurch world movement that several thousand sets of these would enable the national leaders of book marks will be awarded as a re- each co-operating communion to detersult of the work of seiling the Christ- mine where advance work is needed and mas seals. Another card has been where some competition among the deprinted stating that "I have bought my nominations may be eliminated. The Red Cross Christmas seals" and the budgets of the co-operating denominaof these cards to every purchaser of of the surveys that are now being made card placed on the door or in the win- the American missionaries are work dow will prevent the purchaser from ing; in all home mission fields inclubeing annoyed by other children selling ing the foreign language districts of the seals. The sale by the school children the cities and mining areas; the edu dren will be limited to two days in each cational institutions supported by

LEFT ABOUT $75,000.

But There Is Claim in $20,000 Breach of Promise Suit.

Rutland, Nov. 29-The will of Charles H. Lalor, a former Rutland hotel man, raised are to be handled in the treas who died recently, was probated yester-day at the office of Judge A. G. Coolidge. The bulk of the estate, which is reported to be valued at at least $75,hurch-Rev. Alva M. Markey, pastor. 000, goes to the wife of the deceased, sermon Margaret Sullivan Lalor. There are bemests ranging from $50 to $500 to the arious brothers and sisters of the late Mr. Lalor, the will stating that the amounts are apportioned on the "differing circumstances" of the beneficia-

The will was drawn up May 1, 1919. The document names Mrs. Lalor as ex-The witnesses are Carl S. centrix. Cole, Marion C. Gilligan and Marvelle Webber. At the hearing Attorney Edwin W. Lawrence appeared for John J. Lalor, one of the beneficiaries, and cross-examined the witnesses to the document. There may be a heavy claim against the estate as the outcome of the breach of promise suit brought against Mr. Lalor by Miss Anna C. Dyer of this city, who was awarded a verdiet to ecover $20,000. The case is now with he Vermont supreme court. What litigation may follow as result of his death is a matter of conjecture.

Once Enough. Edwin-Then you won't marry me? Angela-No! A thousand times, no! Edwin-You needn't say no a thous-

Rockland

Leominster

Wakefield

Good Adams Company Good Service Successors to A. P. Abbott Co.

Early Christmas Special

Saturday and Monday Only

$2.98

CAMISOLES 2.49

WE find we have a larger stock on this particular item than we need. Some especially delated we need. Some especially dainty and attractive styles and exceptional values, that we bought a long time ago, which have just been delivered. We could not duplicate these values now without paying a lot more. To encourage early Christmas shopping, we are going to put them out at this price for

TWO DAYS ONLY

188 N. Main St. The Daylight Store Barre, Vermont

Woburn

Clinton Gardner

CHURCH CO-OPERATION Was the Vote of the Interchurch Con- cessory periods.

ference Held in Burlington Recently.

ducted in December.

fact was emphasized by both the state tions. Each church will be represented and national leaders that the inter- at these county conventions by the eals for the coming year will be con- ized for organic union of the churches whom shall be a woman prehasers and then the seals have stewardship that God is the owner of this state was named after a number seen given to the school children to all things and that man is a steward of sessions. sell. This year the sale will be given responsible to God for the administra. The personnel of the advisory comseals will be put on sale in the stores unselfish basis; of encouraging the and in territories not covered, direct study of missions on a systematic basis

The speakers declared that the way the united efforts are being worked was used among the school children of was by getting information which after France during the war. It is expected having been obtained and tabulated nominations may be eliminated. The hildren will be instructed to give one tions will be determined on the basis one hundred or more of these seals. The | in all the non-Christian countries where church funds, hospitals, orphanages, ol people's homes and other charitable institutions operated under denomina tional auspices. All of the objects for which money was raised by the denominational boards in former years by separated campaigns will be raised in a united campaign but the funds so uries of the co-operating communion

ust as they always have been. One of the features of the confer ence was the prayer periods. After the various phases of the objectives of the novement and the plans to realize them had been presented and freely cussed, the whole body of delegates be ame silent while each one prayed defi nitely for the spiritual power to ac complish the great purposes of the inited movement. After the silent prayer, audible prayer was offered from Chairman, Dr. W. A. Davison, superin-the floor of the convention by the dele-BUT NOT COMPETITION gates. As many as 10 to 20 delegates tion; secretary, Dr. C. C. Merrill, supercould pray during one of these inter-

Plymouth

Keene, N. H.

Caucuses for the organization of between churches was the keynote at the representatives of the various delegates had registered. It was said ers. George F. Harvey of the field de- Mrs. J. L. Hall or Burlington, Rev. I ing of church leaders that ever assem-bled for any co-operative purpose in the state of Vermont. The fact that Vermont was chosen for the first conference of the interchurch world moved group to another during the caucuses rill, Rev. W. R. Davenport, Rev. J. A. ment was referred to by Dr. W. A. to answer questions that arose during Hamilton, acting for Dr. E. K. Statham, Davison, the superintendent of the Ver- the discussions. Each emphasized to and Rev. W. R. Sharp. mont Baptist convention, in his address group after group that the organization as the chairman of the conference com- effected at this conference was to be mittee at the opening session. Sixty on a temporary basis and the personnel six similar conferences are to be con- of the permanent organizations were to be selected and elected by the dele-Repeatedly during the conference the gates to the various county conven-

The sale of the Red Cross Christmas church world movement was not organ- pastors and three lay delegates, one of to get trimmed in a poker game. - Bosfucted largely by the boys and girls but for co-operation to realize the com- A permanent state advisory commitn the schools throughout the state. In mon objectives of developing the spirit, tee of the Vermont conference of the former years several thousand scals ual resources of the church; of pro- interchurch world movement to have have been sent out by letter direct to moting the idea and practice of the charge of all the interchurch affairs in

The personnel of the advisory com-

intendent of the Vermont Congregational association; Rev. Walter Davenport of St. Albans, Rev. Edward W. Sharp of St. Johnsbury, Rev. G. K. Statham of Rutland, Rev. Charles H. county units to conduct church work Merrill, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, Rev. Co-operation instead of competition on a co-operative basis were held by A. S. Bole of Hardwick, Rev. L. H. between churches was the keynote at the session meeting. The sactament of the Lord's supper will be observed Sunday morning, Dec. 7. The public is cordially invited to worship with us.

Congregational Church—F. L. Goodspeed, D. D., pastor. 10:30, morning worship and preaching by Rev. S. W. to be the largest representative gather partment of the interchurch world S. Johnson of Randolph and E. T. H.

Barre, Vt.

More Expensive Training.

Mr. Pott (wildly)-You don't mean to tell me it cost $37 to get that hat trimmed. That certainly is the limit! Mrs. Pott-Oh, is it? Why, I understood it costs some men more than that ton Transcript.

Both Versatile. "Rhubarb is versatile. It is both a plant food and a drug." "It has nothing on cabbage. You can eat it or smoke it."-Kansas City

Extra Special To-day

300 POUNDS ABSORBENT COTTON, HOSPI-TAL POUND ROLLS, 5 SECONDS ABSORB-ENTARY, REGULAR 85c VALUE, SPECIAL WHILE THIS LOT LASTS

59 cents at The Red Cross Pharmacy

GOOD VALUES

LIQUID SUGAR—Pure Cane Syrup made by the Federal Sugar Refining Co.; can be used for any purpose that requires sweetening; per qt. . 50c With every prospect of a continued shortage of Sugar and a probable higher price, this light amber

Syrup will help out the sugar supply. Shredded Wheat, cash and carry Saturday . . 121/2c Armour's Rolled Oats, cash and carry Saturday 27c Teco Pancake or Buckwheat Self-Raising Flour 10c

3 cans Van Camp's Chicken or Tomato Soup, Van Camp's large Evaporated Milk, cash and carry 3 for 50c Pie Apples, per peck, this lot 50c 3 lbs. of Nut Butter, cash and carry, for $1.00 Sweet Potatoes, a few left at 6 lbs. for 25c

Plenty of Fresh Fish, Finnan Haddies, Clams for Chowder and Fresh Oysters. Fresh, crisp Oyster Crackers, per lb. 20c

The F. D. Ladd Company